Qintel revolutionized threat intelligence technology with its CrossLink platform designed to quickly deliver relevant, comprehensive, and actionable intelligence. Founded and operated by seasoned intelligence professionals from the government and industry in 2009, Qintel's commitment to uncovering data hidden in the depths of the dark web has made it the gold standard in threat intelligence for many Fortune 100 companies and essential government agencies. Today, as cyber threats become more sophisticated and prevalent, Qintel is seeing rapid global adoption of Platform Blue, which delivers threat intelligence from over 700,000 unique sources and over 25 years of threat data.
