
DLA Piper in Luxembourg promotes Mélody Brunot to Partner in its Corporate practice

Luxembourg, 24 April – DLA Piper has promoted Mélody Brunot to partner in its Luxembourg Corporate practice, effective 1 May 2025 as part of the firm's global partnership promotions.

Mélody's promotion is part of a global round of 65 new partners to be made across the firm and brings the total number of partners in Luxembourg to nine. Her promotion reflects the firm's continued strategic growth and commitment to deepening its capabilities in Corporate M&A, and underscores the firm's steady development and ongoing investment in its people and future leadership.

Having joined as Counsel in 2022, Mélody brings extensive experience advising local and international clients on cross-border M&A transactions, joint ventures and corporate reorganisations. She is also highly regarded for her work in corporate governance matters, supporting clients in adapting to evolving governance expectations and strategic priorities.

With a strong focus on innovation and emerging industries, Mélody works closely with scale-up companies and their investors, particularly in the tech and space industries, guiding them through international expansion and complex corporate matters. Her practice is at the intersection of financial services and transformative industries.

Recognised as a "Leading Associate" by Legal500 2025, Mélody is seen by her clients as a trusted advisor, offering innovative thinking, in-depth knowledge of corporate law and strong business acumen.

Catherine Pogorzelski, senior partner at DLA Piper in Luxembourg, adds: "Mélody's promotion is a landmark moment for our Luxembourg office. Her leadership and focus on Corporate M&A represent the direction in which we are growing. She reflects both the strength of our people and our vision for the future. She embodies the entrepreneurial and forward-thinking spirit we value, and we look forward to the continued impact she will have on our team and our clients."

Xavier Guzman, DLA Piper Country Managing Partner for Luxembourg, concludes: "We're delighted to welcome Mélody to the partnership. Her dual focus on financial services and innovation-driven industries makes her a powerful asset for our clients and our firm's future. She is a trusted advisor, a respected colleague, and a true ambassador of our values."
